

Bible In a Year Reading Plan

Day 218 : Jeremiah 25-28

In Jeremiah 26, the prophet faces opposition for delivering God's message. How does Jeremiah's courage in the face of adversity inspire you to stand firm in your faith?

Jeremiah 27 speaks about false prophets who lead people astray. How can you discern true messages from God in today's world amidst various conflicting voices?

Dig
Deeper

Reflect on Jeremiah 28:15-17, where the false prophet Hananiah is punished. How does this passage emphasize the importance of obedience to God's word and not being swayed by false assurances?

What other insights did you gain from reading these chapters? Share your thoughts in the comment section.

Bible In A Year Reading Plan

Day 219: Jeremiah 29-32

In Jeremiah 29:13, God says you will find Him when you seek Him with all your heart. How can you apply this principle to deepen your relationship with God?

Jeremiah 31:3 speaks of God's everlasting love and unfailing kindness. How does this assurance impact your understanding of God's nature and His relationship with you?

Dig
Deeper

Reflect on the promise of the new covenant in Jeremiah 31:31-34. How does this new covenant, written on your heart, shape your approach to living out your faith?

What other insights did you gain from reading these chapters? Share your thoughts in the comment section.

Bibe In A Year Reading Plan

Day 220: Jeremiah 33-36

In Jeremiah 33:3, God invites His people to call on Him and promises to answer. How can you make prayer a more integral part of your daily life, trusting that God hears and responds?

In Jeremiah 36, Baruch reads Jeremiah's scroll to the people. How does the importance placed on hearing and sharing God's word challenge you to engage more deeply with Scripture?

Reflect on King Jehoiakim's reaction to the scroll in Jeremiah 36:23-24. How do you respond to God's word when it convicts or challenges you, and what steps can you take to be more receptive?

What other insights did you gain from reading these chapters? Share your thoughts in the comment section.

Bible In A Year Reading Plan

Day 22: Jeremiah 37-40

Consider the bravery of Ebed-Melek in Jeremiah 38:7-13. How can you show courage and stand up for what is right, even when it is difficult?

Reflect on Jeremiah 40:4-5, where Jeremiah is given freedom amidst the chaos. How can you find and trust God's plans for you even in the midst of adversity and uncertainty?

In Jeremiah 40:9-10, Gedaliah urges the people to serve the Babylonians and live peacefully. How does this passage encourage you to seek and follow God's guidance, even when it is counterintuitive?

What other insights did you gain from reading these chapters? Share your thoughts in the comment section.

Bible In A Year Reading Plan

Day 222: Jeremiah 41-44

Reflect on the events of Jeremiah 41, where Ishmael betrays and murders Gedaliah. How do you respond to betrayal and seek God's strength to forgive and move forward?

Reflect on the disobedience of the remnant in Jeremiah 43. How can you learn from their mistakes and strive to obey God even when His instructions are challenging?

Dig
Deeper

Despite the people's disobedience, God continues to reach out to them. How does God's persistent love and desire for relationship with His people inspire you to deepen your commitment to Him?

What other insights did you gain from reading these chapters? Share your thoughts in the comment section.